The 2022 Universality of Global Conference (UGEC) is pleased to inform you that your proposal entitled FUNREAD: A Co-Designed Online Learning Platform to Enhance English Language Skills and Promote Diversity among Costa Rican ELLs has been accepted for the conference at Sam Houston State University. Dr. Montenegro is an alumni of Sam Houston State University (SHSU) and as a doctoral student she collaborated in establishing meaningful and successful alliances between SHSU and Ministry of Public Education of Costa Rica. Dr. Montenegro's presence here at SHU is an opportunity to continue strengthening and establishing future collaborations between SHSU and higher education institutions in Costa Rica.

After the conference, Dr. Montenegro will participate in various educational activities at SHSU that are valuable for her professional development as a scholar. I personally have set-up dedicated meeting times with her to discuss these future collaborations discussed above. Dr. Montenegro will be staying in Huntsville from March 3 through March 6, 2022 for the conference purposes.

We truly look forward to having Dr. Montenegro on our campus again and to build further partnerships. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you need further information regarding Dr. Montenegro's stay in the U.S.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
